

Annual Conference
November 18-20 | Atlanta, GA

ARNOVA

Presents the

Best 2020 Conference Paper Award

to

Yuan Cheng and Jodi Sandfort

for

Administrative Reform to Overcome Institutional Racism: Exploring Government's Trust Building Tactics to Renew Relationships with Community-based Organizations

Integrating multiple sources of data, this research examines an important research question: how can trust be built between government and BIPOC community-based organizations in order to combat institutional racism? The author(s) argue that trust must be built across different levels of collaboration through a complex cycle. The research is engaging, timely, and compelling.